ERIC A. RUDOLPH, ESQ.

"Probate: What Is It Good For & How To Avoid It"

We will explore Trust Administration vs. Probate and inheritance of guns, property, art, autos and financial accounts.

Eric A. Rudolph is the founder and owner of the Law Offices of Eric A. Rudolph. Before starting his practice in Palm Springs, Mr. Rudolph worked at prominent law firms in Los Angeles and the Bay Area representing individuals, couples, families, corporations and small businesses. Eric has made Palm Springs his home and looks forward to many years of helping members of the Coachella Valley community solve their legal problems.

Mr. Rudolph has extensive experience in Estate Planning, Estate and Trust Administration and Real Estate law and has handled many estate planning matters for individuals, couples, LGBT and families, including trust administration and probate litigation, as well as real estate transaction matters for clients, including purchase & sale transactions, foreclosure matters, HOA-homeowner disputes, partition actions, easement disputes, title disputes and more.

Eric A. Rudolph earned his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from San Francisco State University where he graduated with honors. He earned his Juris Doctorate from Golden Gate University School of Law in San Francisco. While at Golden Gate University, Mr. Rudolph received the Witkin Award in Wills & Trusts for his outstanding performance in this area. Mr. Rudolph is a current member of the State Bar of California and the Desert Bar Association and is an active member of the Desert Estate Planning Council and the Desert Business Association. Mr. Rudolph is also an active business member and volunteer for the Mizell Senior Center, the Joslyn Center, The LGBT Center of the Desert, and Prime Timers of the Desert.
